Grant Application Guidelines
Community Participation Grant

- (b) Performance measures and deliverables of the grant as proposed by the applicant, and accepted by NAC.

The Letter of Offer is a legal document requiring signed acceptance of grant terms and conditions by the applicant.

This offer will be valid for two weeks, unless otherwise indicated by NAC in writing. During this time, the applicant must indicate acceptance by signing and returning the Letter of Offer Reply Slip, failing which the offer will lapse.

APPEAL

NAC's decision is final. NAC reserves the right not to disclose reasons for approving or disapproving an application.

Appeals against artistic appreciation and judgement will not be accepted. Cases will be reviewed only on grounds of:

- (a) Improper processing procedures, and/or
- (b) Inaccurate interpretation of the project by the grants officer.

Unsuccessful applicants must substantiate these claims with concrete evidence and reasons. Appeals must be submitted on a prescribed form within two weeks from the date of the letter of notification, and before the commencement of the project.

SECTION III – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- (A) NAC reserves the right to review, withdraw or suspend the grant in full or in part thereof should any of the following conditions not be complied with:
- (i) NAC's support must be acknowledged on all related publicity materials. This includes printing of the NAC logo on said material. Please refer to our website for details on how to use the NAC logo.
 - (ii) NAC must be informed in writing of any changes to the proposed project at least seven working days prior to the project's original execution date. These changes include any changes in the programme, key artistic personnel, venue, and/or date of the project. A project may not be postponed more than once. Any postponement and/or cancellation must be fully explained in writing.
 - (iii) A Project Evaluation Report must be submitted online within two months of the end of the project. Failure to submit this report will result in the automatic disqualification of any future grant applications.
 - (iv) Individuals and Organisations that receive a single grant below $20,000 may be requested to provide supporting documents or receipts (ticket stubs for ticketed events may be requested), in addition to the Project Evaluation Report.
 - (v) Individuals and Organisations who receive a single grant equal to or above $20,000 must submit a certified statement of accounts which has been externally audited by an accounting firm.
- (B) NAC also reserves the right to recover the grant(s) disbursed, should any of the following occur:

 - (ii) The grant is not used for the purpose for which it is awarded.
 - (iii) Wrong and/or misleading information is provided in the application form, either deliberately or otherwise.
 - (iv) Illegal or negligent acts that occur during any point of the funded project, which will adversely affect the reputation of the National Arts Council, any government bodies, public institutions, national leaders or your person / organisation.

ANNEX A – FUNDING GUIDELINES

ACTIVITIES NOT FUNDED

While artistic merit is a key factor in funding decisions, consideration is also given to whether the work would bring about other negative influences. As a public arts agency, NAC is obliged to prioritise financial support away from artistic projects which:

- (a) Erode the core moral values of society, including, but not limited to the promotion of permissive lifestyles and depictions of obscenity or graphic sexual conduct;
- (b) Denigrate or debase a person, group or class of individuals on the basis of race or religion, or serve to create conflict or misunderstanding in our multicultural and multi-religious society;
- (c) Disparage or demean government bodies, public institutions or national leaders, and/or subvert the nation's security or stability.
- (d) Are not exempt from requiring an Arts Entertainment Licence but which have not been issued said Licence (see "Licensing Forms" at www.mda.gov.sg)

There are many activities that are beyond the scope of the Council's funding, regardless of their merit. NAC will not accept applications for the following:

- (a) Projects that do not have a clearly defined arts component, including projects primarily aimed at promoting religious or social causes other than excellence for the arts.
- (b) Fundraising events.
- (c) Projects which have commenced prior to the application.
- (d) Major capital expenditure including refurbishment of buildings, office equipment, musical instruments.
- (e) Academic research and conferences and development of resources specifically for academic purposes.
- (f) Projects already receiving funding or support from NAC (E.g. Singapore Arts Festival, Arts Education Programme).
- (g) Activities presented or owned by other public agencies.
- (h) Small-scale competitions or new group/book/CD launches with limited outreach.

Other restrictions specific to each grant scheme may apply.

If you are not sure as to whether your proposed project is eligible for NAC funding, please speak to one of our Grant officers before applying.
