

NOISE SINGAPORE AWARD RECIPIENTSART & DESIGN –*Allysa Sing

Allysa Sing is a mixed media artist whose projects often explore the boundaries of beauty and society, whilst trying to make sense of the inherent attractiveness of nature. She recently graduated and now holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Digital Filmmaking. Besides being a student of Digital Filmmaking, her interest in production design in filmmaking has led her to art & design projects that allow her to work with different mediums.

PHOTOGRAPHY –Wilfred Weege

Wilfred is currently pursuing a photography degree at the School of Art, Design and Media in Nanyang Technological University (NTU). He lived in a small fishing village at the seaside in Pengerang, Southern Malaysia for 18 years before coming to Singapore to pursue his education. Wilfred draws inspiration from childhood memories and current issues. He seeks to present his vision and commentary through his dream-like imagery.

PHOTOGRAPHY –Felicia Quah

Felicia Quah is an artist residing in Singapore and is currently pursuing her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Photography and Digital Imaging at NTU. Felicia's photographs revolve mainly around human presence and the essence it contains. She believes in creating art works that portray and evoke emotional responses. Inspired by the subjective reality of narratives told through visuals, Felicia imposes a certain neutrality upon her canvas – the photograph.

MUSIC –

Sa (仨)

Sa (仨), which means “three of us” in Northern Chinese dialect, embodies the spirit of three individuals influenced by diverse cultures in today’s cosmopolitan and globalised world. The trio is driven by passion and a zest for experimentation, honouring their ethnic tradition while pursuing modern sonic experiences. Featuring original compositions inspired by their cultural roots, Sa (仨) hopes to create musical art representing their modern identity as Chinese from a Diaspora.

neoDominatrix

neoDominatrix is an experimental music project led by Andy Chong (nD), who decided to bring together a group of musicians with a similar vision to share their collective musical experience. Every song neoDominatrix writes has a question in mind, mostly controversial. The music is drawn from that controversy and performed with an improvisational approach where the dynamics and orchestration are determined by the band’s judgement of time, space, mood, and audience reaction.
