About Irene Jansen

Irene Jansen, The Singing Chef marries her two passions – singing and cooking – into a delectable performance. The Singing Chef has performed for many events held at the Esplanade (Flipside and Celebrate December) as well as for food conventions and outdoor roadshows.

Cooking bonds a family; singing original catchy tunes about the dishes while cooking, seals these bonds. As The Singing Chef, Irene Jansen ropes in her own family (her mum, Mary, sister, Audrey and daughter, Sarah) and good friend, Belinda Foo on piano to join her in whipping up four delicious dishes reminiscent of her mother's and grandmothers' cooking. Whet your appetite as Irene shows you how her family favourites – Roti Jala, Penang style Assam Laksa, Mama's Roast Chicken and Bandung Shake, a refreshing and innovative take on the old classic bandung, are made. Join this family of home chefs as they sing, cook and recollect their culinary inspirations and memories.
