About Marc Nair

Marc Nair is a poet and photographer from Singapore. He has published ten volumes of poetry. A recipient of the 2016 Young Artist Award, he is currently pursuing projects that involves photography and creative non-fiction.

Join artist Marc Nair as he brings participants on a virtual walk through the storied alleyways of Tiong Bahru. Marc will stop to read poems, point out different perspectives and reflect on how the arts can teach us to see differently. Participants will then take part in an interactive workshop the following week where they will learn about the relationship between photography and writing.

Sign up for the virtual walk and/or workshop. We recommend both for the full experience!
