

INTERGENERATIONAL

11 SEP FRI, 2pm

Intergenerational Garden

by Ben Connors of Magic Me (United Kingdom)

What grows and lives in a garden? Who are the people who care for and visit it? Participants will work in intergenerational pairs to draw on memories, favourite gardens and plants, to imagine and design their own garden together in this drawing workshop.

About Ben Connors

Ben Connors is an artist whose work explores themes of collaboration, identity, representation and communication. He makes drawings, murals, animations and comics.

About Magic Me

Magic Me is an arts charity that brings generations together to build a stronger, safer community. For over 30 years Magic Me has pioneered intergenerational arts projects with young and older people across east London, UK, involving 1,500 people last year.

Part of

Organised By

Supported By

