About Broadband

Broadband, with Gilbert Fernandez, Gregory Chow, Thomas Chow, Eric Sandosham, Leon Theseira and Tiffany Chow, is a 6-piece band that plays a broad range of music from the 60s to the present. A key inspiration for this collaboration is Broadband's intergenerational (father and daughter) and kinship (siblings) composition. Their brand of music is popular at various community events such as the Eurasian Association New Year celebrations.

'My Jam' is an expression used in music which refers to a favourite song or a piece of music that carries a groove or style that pleases you. So what can be more pleasing than watching a family play music together? Let this inter- and intragenerational band take the music and dance lover in you back to the late 60s and 70s. They will feature a selection of music from a time when bell bottoms were in trend and the twang of electric guitar kept the hips swinging. As they say, the family that plays together, stays together.

Performed in English.

This is a Singapore Chinese Cultural Centre Venue Partnership scheme event.
