

ANNEX A: WORLD OF STORIES PROGRAMME LINE-UP

Title	World of Stories
Synopsis	“World of Stories” is a community arts initiative developed by the National Arts Council (NAC) and the National Library Board (NLB) as a lead-up to the Singapore Arts Festival 2012. It features 12 two metre tall books created by various schools and community groups to celebrate Asian folktales, legends and myths. Each book is exhibited individually at 12 of NLB’s public libraries and showcases puppets designed and handmade by the schools. Participants can participate in a wide variety of activities and programmes led by these schools and community groups. They include storytelling sessions, arts and culture showcases, song and dance performances, and puppetry shows. Book exhibits at NLB’s public libraries from 7 April to 3 June Ang Mo Kio Public Library            Storybook: “The Toad who Brought the Rain”            Designed by: Ahmad Ibrahim Secondary School            Fringe activities: 7 &amp; 14 April (Saturdays)            1.00pm – 2.00pm            Frog Origami Workshop by Singapore Arts Festival’s Festival Ambassadors 21 &amp; 28 April (Saturdays)            1.00pm – 2.00pm            Vietnamese Cultural Performances by Singapore Arts Festival’s Festival Ambassadors Bedok Public Library            Storybook: “Sisters’ Islands”            Designed by: Bedok View Secondary School            Fringe activities: 7 April, Saturday            2.00pm – 3.00pm            “Sisters’ Islands” in three versions by Junyuan Secondary School 14 April, Saturday            2.00pm – 3.00pm            Story Performance by CHIJ Katong Convent 21 April, Saturday            2.00pm – 3.00pm            “Behind the Scenes of Puppet Making” Workshop by Bedok View Secondary School 28 April, Saturday            2.00pm – 3.00pm            Shadow Puppetry Workshop by Singapore Arts Festival’s Festival Ambassadors Bishan Public Library            Storybook: “The Soldier and the Dragon”            Designed by: First Toa Payoh Secondary School            Fringe activities: 7, 14, 21 April, Saturdays            3.00pm – 4.00pm            Storytelling and Finger Puppet Making by First Toa Payoh Secondary School
