About Toy Factory Productions Ltd

Founded in 1990, Toy Factory has had a rich history being a part of Singapore's amazing arts scene, generating a body of original and unique stories for Asia and beyond.

Priding itself on its all-inclusive approach, the theatre-maker is an advocate of creating original Asian stories and quality adaptations on stage – often toggling between vastly different languages, dialects and styles in order to present the purest form of theatrical storytelling onto Singapore's main stage.

Connected by love, culture, food and all things reminiscent of Singapore from the good old days, a group of music lovers wrote their own melodies and sought to find their own rhythm amidst the daily bustle of the Redhill Market.

Toy Factory presents a sincere revival of songs inspired by the sounds of the trishaw bell, the colourful lights of Great World Amusement Park, and even the texture of fried dough sticks – come hear Old Songs of Redhill Market as they grace the grand stage of Victoria Theatre.
