

Cultural Medallion Speaker Series Event Details

This Foreign Land I Call Home

Featuring: JM Sali (Literary Arts), Milenko Prvacki (Visual Arts)

Moderated by: Arun Mahizhnan

Sun 28 Oct | 3 – 4.30pm | National Library, The Pod

They came, they loved, they settled. Hear two of this year's Cultural Medallion recipients recount their journey from other shores, how they negotiated their identities as outsiders situated at the heart of Singapore's arts scene, and how they came to love and see this place as home.

Defining our Artistic Canon – What Makes Art Singaporean?

Featuring: Ho Ho Ying (Visual Arts), Jennifer Tham (Music), T Sasitharan (Theatre)

Moderated by: Kwok Kian Woon

Sun 4 Nov | 3 – 4.30pm | National Library, The Pod

In a place of many conflicting influences - east meets west, tradition clashes with the contemporary, how do we begin defining what it means for arts to be local? How does a work of art become a part of our canon, and why is this important in the first place? Join three of this year's Cultural Medallion recipients as they talk about their artistic work in the fields of music, theatre and visual arts, and what it means to them for art to be Singaporean.

Admission is free, by registration at <http://bit.ly/Ot3WXy>
For enquiries, email nac_cmyaa@nac.gov.sg