

ANNEX A3: NHB SCHOLARSHIP & 2026 RECIPIENTS

The National Heritage Board aims to provide aspiring individuals who have a passion for understanding, safeguarding, and celebrating our rich heritage and culture with opportunities to contribute as future leaders in the sector. The NHB Scholarship supports full-time undergraduate or postgraduate studies (up to the Masters degree level) in various disciplines that will develop the skills for an exciting and meaningful career in the field of culture and heritage.

The areas of study may include:

- Archaeology
- Conservation
- Museum Studies / Education
- Curatorial Studies
- History (Singapore, Southeast Asia)
- Cultural Preservation and Heritage Management
- Design History

NHB Scholarship 2026 Recipient

- Jenna Goh Ai Lynn, Master of Arts and Cultural Management, Kings College London, United Kingdom