1.	Attributed to: Professor Kwok Kian Woon Designation/Organisation: Vice-Chancellor, University of the Arts Singapore	"The NAC-UAS Arts Scholarship represents a shared commitment to nurturing our young talents from diverse disciplines; they will help shape the future of Singapore's creative ecosystem. We are grateful for the National Arts Council's continued support, and we look forward to witnessing their growth and contributions in the years ahead."
2.	Attributed to: Professor Steve Dixon Designation/Organisation: Deputy Vice-Chancellor, University of the Arts Singapore and President, LASALLE College of the Arts	"LASALLE is very pleased to further our partnership with the NAC through the establishment of this scholarship for Diploma students. Singapore's cultural landscape has seen tremendous growth over the years, and at a time when the importance of a creative education is increasingly recognised across all economic sectors, I am delighted that we are able to expand opportunities for talented young artists to flourish and realise their potential."
3.	Attributed to: Mrs Tan-Soh Wai Lan Designation/Organisation: Deputy Vice-Chancellor, University of the Arts Singapore and President, Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts	"We are excited about the 5-year partnership between NAFA and NAC under the President's Challenge. The NAC Arts Scholarship (Diploma) offers local citizens and permanent residents in the Diploma programme enhanced access to arts education, enabling them to become future leaders in the arts and creative industries. This year, we are proud to support 12 exceptional recipients from NAFA who have demonstrated outstanding talent, passion, and dedication in the fields of music, dance, theatre, and arts management. Each of them brings a unique voice and vision to their craft. The NAC Arts Scholarship (Diploma) will help support their artistic passions and shape Singapore's cultural narrative in inspiring ways."
4.	Attributed to: Mrs Mary Seah Designation/Organisation: Principal, School of The Arts, Singapore	"We are honoured to be part of the NAC Arts Scholarship (Diploma) and grateful for this meaningful partnership. It affirms the importance of nurturing artistic and creative learners with the shared belief in the power of the arts to uplift communities, deepen our heritage and shine for Singapore on the world stage. This scholarship will give greater confidence to young talents to pursue the arts with passion and courage, encouraging them to pay it forward through their impact on society as cultural leaders of tomorrow."
