

NATIONAL ARTS COUNCIL
SINGAPORE

Annex A: #ArtsInYourNeighbourhood Programme Highlights

POTLUCK Zine by System Sovereign

Image credits: National Arts Council

4 September - 6 November 2022, Block 10 Toa Payoh Lor 7 void deck

POTLUCK Zine is an exhibition co-created by Toa Payoh East residents and System Sovereign's Brilliant Corners initiative, founded by Singaporean multidisciplinary duo Kiat and Cherry Chan.

Check out the artworks co-created by Toa Payoh East residents, in collaboration with artists Boon Baked, YABAI YABAI (aka Stacy Tan), Dju-lian Chng, and Stephanie Peh.

Experience the e-zine at this link:

<https://www.brilliantcorners.club/>

This programme is supported by NAC and People's Association Integration Council, in partnership with the Integration and Naturalisation Champions \(INC\) at Toa Payoh East Division.

Better 2gather by Participate in Design

Image credits: Participate in Design

15 October - 15 November 2022, Square between Telok Blangah Market and Food Centre (82 Telok Blangah Drive)

Guided by papercraft visual artist Cheryl Teo, residents of Telok Blangah came together to co-create a papercraft exhibition celebrating their diverse backgrounds and experiences. Visit the exhibition to experience the many stories and memories of the Telok Blangah community and neighbourhood.

This programme is supported by NAC and People's Association Integration Council, in partnership with the Integration and Naturalisation Champions \(INC\) at Telok Blangah Division.

OTH Community Theatre (working title) by ACT3 International  Image credits: Act3 International	6 November 2022 (Sunday), 5pm – 5.30pm, Our Tampines Hub, Festive Arts Theatre OTH Community Theatre (working title) aims to create a family-based performance through weekly theatre workshops with residents of Tampines. Participants have been working together in a creative process of theatre-devising to put together a performance for their children, families, friends, and their community. This programme is in partnership with Our Tampines Hub.
Garden of Joy by Jaxton Su	January – April 2023 Timing and location TBC Garden of Joy (working title) is a community art project which aims to engage the Bukit Canberra community through a series of meaningful co-creation workshops. Participants of all ages will work together to create an art installation inspired by the abundance of nature in their neighbourhood.
Singapore Writers Festival – 25 Programmes in 25 Libraries	4 – 20 November 2022, Various locations To mark the 25th edition of the Singapore Writers Festival (SWF), SWF will collaborate with the National Library Board to present 25 programmes in 25 libraries across the island. Come discover talks, workshops and book club meetings taking place beyond the festival grounds and in your public library. Find out more here.
Singapore Art Week (SAW) x PAssionArts 2023	6 - 15 January 2023, Various locations Singapore Art Week (SAW) 2023 is collaborating with People’s Association (PA) to present the inaugural SAW x PAssionArts platform for artists to work alongside Community Arts &amp; Culture Clubs (CACCs) to engage five neighbourhoods across Singapore namely Bedok, Bukit Gombak, Limbang (Choa Chu Kang), Pasir Ris East and Radin Mas. These programmes will engage with the respective communities and will be presented as installations within the neighbourhoods.