

CULTURAL MEDALLION FUND

The Cultural Medallion, instituted in 1979, is the highest national arts accolade awarded to individuals in recognition of their artistic excellence and contributions in shaping the arts and cultural landscape in Singapore. Since 2001, funds have been set aside to support Cultural Medallion recipients' continuous artistic pursuit in making a positive impact on Singapore's arts and cultural development and engaging the wider community through their future projects.

About the Fund

OBJECTIVES

As part of the Council's effort in developing cultural leadership, it is envisioned that the Cultural Medallion Fund is a means to supporting Cultural Medallion recipients, as leaders in their respective fields, to champion the development of their artistic practice, pass on their knowledge to aspiring artists, and inspire the Singapore community through their practice both nationally and internationally.

The Cultural Medallion Fund can be used to support arts-related projects that meet any of the following objectives:

- Community Outreach (e.g., workshops with the community, community showcases)
- Artistic Development of Recipient (e.g., further studies, residencies)
- Knowledge Transfer and Development of Other Local Artists (e.g., mentoring younger artists)
- Profiling and Documentation of Recipient's Work, or Local Arts (e.g., publications, exhibitions, stage and film productions)

Examples of projects supported by the Cultural Medallion Fund include creation and presentation of new works, research and documentation projects, retrospective exhibitions, publications, mentoring, activities for people to take part in, and more.

ELIGIBILITY

The Cultural Medallion Fund can be used by Singapore citizens and permanent residents who are Cultural Medallion recipients.

However, your proposal will not be considered if:

- you have already been awarded funding under the Cultural Medallion Fund before 2010.
- you have not satisfactorily completed and submitted reports for other grants;
- you have an outstanding debt with the Council.

FUNDING QUANTUM

Each Cultural Medallion recipient will be able to tap on a fund of up to $80,000. This amount could be used for a single project or multiple projects over time. The amount awarded for each project will depend on the nature and scope of the project, as well as the amount of funds not utilized.

- (E) NAC may vary the terms and conditions of funding as it deems fit, but these will be made known to the CM recipient before the funding offer is accepted.

Annex B – Funding Guidelines

ACTIVITIES NOT FUNDED

While artistic merit is a key factor in funding decisions, as a government agency, NAC gives consideration to whether the project is potentially a negative influence to society. NAC will prioritise proposals that do not:

- (a) advocate or lobby for lifestyles seen as objectionable by the general public;
- (b) denigrate or debase a person, group or class of individuals on the basis of race or religion, or serve to create conflict or misunderstanding in our multicultural and multi-religious society;
- (c) undermine the authority or legitimacy of the government and public institutions, or threaten the nation's security or stability.

In addition, NAC will not accept proposals for projects which:

- (a) do not have a clearly defined arts component, including projects whose purpose or content are to promote religious or social causes other than excellence for the arts.
- (b) are by organisations constituted for non-secular purposes or held at religious venues (including event, theatre or auditorium spaces situated within places of worship).
- (c) have commenced prior to NAC's receipt of the proposal.

If you are not sure as to whether your project is eligible for NAC funding, please speak to one of our NAC officers before putting in your proposal.
